

Pernod Ricard Australia

Katherine Candy National Wine Specialist

With over twenty five years' experience in the liquor industry, Katherine has worked in numerous roles including sales, marketing and wine education, across the Middle East, Australia and New Zealand

As the National Wine Specialist for Pernod Ricard Australia, she is responsible for hosting tastings for wine journalists, retailer buying panels, sommeliers and industry professionals. She sits on the tasting panel for Drinks Trade magazine and is the NSW committee representative for the Wine Communicators of Australia. Katherine holds the Wine & Spirits Education Trust (WSET) Educators Certificate and is responsible for the in-house wine training of all Pernod Ricard Australia staff

